Application Submission Page

Before applying for a TSIA World speaking opportunity, be sure to read the speaker qualifications and terms & conditions outlined below.

1. Speakers must be either a current TSIA member company employee or a current TSIA Consulting Alliance Partner representative. TSIA reserves the right to verify a speaker's employer's membership/partnership status before approving an application.
2. Speakers must be available to present in person.
3. Only one complimentary registration is awarded per speaking session. Co-presenters must purchase an additional registration.
4. TSIA Industry Solution Partners are required to contract for speaking sessions.
5. Circumstances beyond TSIA's control may necessitate changes to the conference agenda. In such situations, TSIA reserves the right to cancel or replace speakers and modify topics. In cases where TSIA exercises its right to modify the agenda, speakers affected by the changes will be notified in writing. Any substitutions or modifications will be updated on the TSIA World website as soon as possible.
6. Speakers may withdraw from participation as a presenter by giving 45 days written notice to TSIA before the conference.
7. Speakers are encouraged to repurpose content created for their presentation, including any recordings that TSIA or speakers may produce of their presentation. Speaker must first obtain approval in writing from TSIA before repurposing of content. Repurposed content must include appropriate attribution to the TSIA World event for which the content was created. Any leads from web forms containing or leading to repurposed content must also be auto-transferred to TSIA.
