

Terms and Conditions

Your use of this Newsweek New & Noteworthy ("New & Noteworthy") editorial feature in partnership with the Best New Product Awards, and its related services, is subject to the following Terms and Conditions. These Terms and Conditions may, at our sole discretion, be modified or replaced at any time, without notice.

New & Noteworthy is designed to highlight new consumer products and services (the "product(s)") that Newsweek ("Newsweek") and Best New Product Awards Inc. ("BNPA Inc.") believe may be of interest to Newsweek readers. Newsweek receives numerous applications for inclusion within New & Noteworthy and has complete editorial discretion whether to accept any product for inclusion in it. Newsweek reserves the right to include any of the products it deems appropriate and to remove or reject any product at any time, based upon its own discretion.

Newsweek may terminate its New & Noteworthy promotion of a product at any time, with or without written notice or cause or where a Company submitting a product (the "Company") does not comply with these Terms and Conditions. Upon such termination the Company shall immediately cease its use of or reference to New & Noteworthy content (the "Content").

New & Noteworthy may refer to feedback from consumers that does not necessarily reflect the opinions of Newsweek or BNPA Inc. Consumers' experiences with the selected products may vary. Newsweek or BNPA Inc. present the products without recommendation or endorsement of the products or brands listed, and make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, as to the information provided by New & Noteworthy (the "information provided"). Under no circumstances will Newsweek or BNPA Inc. be liable to any person for damages of any nature arising in any way from the use of the information provided. The information provided should be used only as a guide and should not be the only determining factor for selection of a product.

All responsibility for quality, legal compliance, performance or safety of the Company's product or brand rests with the Company. Newsweek or BNPA Inc. do not warrant or represent the quality, performance, satisfaction with, efficacy or safety of any of the Company's products or brands. Newsweek or BNPA Inc. are not liable for any damages, issues, recalls, data breaches, injury, harm, or death, actual or perceived defect in the quality, performance, efficacy or safety of, or associated with, or alleged to have resulted from, the Company's product or brand, whether such are seen or unforeseen.
